No 667.

Hague, August 2.

HEN Messieurs d'Uhlefeldt and Fenelon imparted the Plan of a Definitive Treaty to their High Mightinesses, they accompany'd it with a Memorial, in which there are some Passages which the States know not how to digest. Those Ministers Communication of the said Plan, instead of the Treaty in Form, with all its Separate and Secret Articles, seems to be with a Design to see whether or no the Maritime Powers are disposed to approve or accede to it. Some will have it, that this Conduct of the Two Courts has some hidden Mystery in it, and that there is a Snake in the Grass; but 'tis more probable, that the Emperor and the Most Christian King, by communicating the Substance of the Treaty signed at Vienna, under the simple Title of a Plan, instead of the Treaty itself in Form, had two Things in View, (1.) To sift the Republick, in order to know its Sentiments thereupon: And, (2.) To hinder the States-General from answering them, that since the Treaty was concluded and ratify'd, 'twas needless to desire their Approbation.

'Be this as it will, there's no Doubt but their High Mightinesses will, by Means of his Excellency Mr. Walpole, who happens luckily to be here at this Juncture, concert with Great Britain the Measures that are proper to be taken upon this Occasion, without disgusting the Emperor and France on the one Hand, or without being duped by them on the other.

'Mean Time, Myneer Vanhoe, since he return'd last to Paris, is continually encouraging their High Mightinesses against any Apprehensions upon this Head; and his Letters are full of the fresh Assurances given him by Cardinal Fleury, of his constant Friendship to his Person, and the King's particular Regard for the Republick. In the first Letter he wrote Word, that a certain Minister only went to Versailles, to pay another Visit to the Cardinal, and to make him a Compliment: Which pretty extraordinary Passage has occasioned Variety of Conjectures, even in the Assembly of the States-General, where, about Ten Days ago, the Letter was read.

'How that Negotiator found the Cardinal dispos'd is a Secret; but 'tis not unknown, that in the last Conference he had with his Eminency, he gave him to understand, that the Maritime Powers were not insensible how they had been slighted, even so far as to be excluded from the Influence they always had in the Grand Affairs; but that, perhaps, the Time was coming, when their Influence would be courted, and their Friendship coveted.

'If the Marquis de St. Gilles goes to England, as 'tis still reported he will, it must be for some important Negotiation. 'Tis said, indeed, that his only Business there will be to make an exact Inquiry into the Damages which the English complain they have suffered in America, and to remove all the Differences between those two Courts; in Order to prevent the Execution of the Resolution, which the Court of Great Britain has taken, to send a Squadron to the West Indies, if not another to the Mediterranean.

'As our Commissioners at Antwerp are to insist, in the Conferences there, upon the Performance of the Articles of the Barrier Treaty concerning the Limits, &c. according to their express Instructions, before they consent to make the least Alteration in the Tariff, 'tis supposed that the Negotiation will spin out a great deal of Time, or that it will be broke off as soon as begun.

'We have News here from Curassaw, that some Days before the Arrival of Capt. Soleyver, the Dutch Ships fitted out there, had taken 3 Spanish Barks; which is an Affair that is like to be attended with Consequences.'

From the London Gazette.

Petersbourg, July 16. A Courier arrived here on the 9th Instant, with Letters from Velt-Marshall Lacy, dated the 28th of June, who informs her Czarish Majesty, that Vice-Admiral Bredal, with the Flo-tilla coasting the Palus Mæotis, had found a Neck of Land about 30 Hours distance from the Perecop, which reached almost to the Crimea; so that with a Bridge of Boats of 30 Fathom long, the Velt-Marshall in 3 Days Time passed all his Army into the Crimea, without going to the Perecop, which he heard was very well repaired, and defended by the Cham and his Tartars. That General adds, that as soon as he was got into the Crimea, he was told there was a Line drawn near Arabat, which was guarded by 10,000 Janifaries, and 5000 Spahis; which he no sooner heard, than he sent the Hettman of the Don Cossacks, called Effremoff, and some Calmucks to attack them: The Turks made but a very weak Resistance and retired; so that the Cossacks and Calmucks passed the Lines and took several Thousand Horses, Black Cattle, and Sheep, and returned to the Russian Camp, after having burnt about 20 Villages. The Russian Plenipotentiaries being inform'd that M. Tahlman and the Turkish Ministers were arrived within six Hours Journey of Niemeroff, they immediately set out from Kioff to join them. Count Ostein was also to leave that Place on the 6th Instant to follow the said Russian Plenipotentiaries. Counsellor Munich writes, that a Courier was arrived at Peterhoff, who brought an Account, that his Brother Velt Marshal Count Munich had taken Oczakow the 2d Instant.

Dresden, August 7, N. S. M. Keyserling, the Russian Minister here, received Yesterday a Courier from Count Munich, with the News of his having taken Oczakow. It is likewise reported, that the Russian Plenipotentiaries are now arrived at Niemeroff. This Court is at present much taken up in making several Rescripts for Courland, and especially that which they call De Obedientia, by which the King will order the States of Courland to acknowledge and obey Count Biron as their Duke. The King of Poland has given the Order of the White Eagle to the Duke of Saxe-Meyningen.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

LETTERS of July 27, O. S. from Vienna say, that Te Deum has been sung in the Metropolitan Church (present their Imperial Majesties and the Three Archduchesses) for the Taking of Nissa in Servia; and that at the same Time there were 3 Discharges of the Cannon from the Ramparts, and as many from the Small Arms: That Orders are sent to Italy, to detach 2000 Men from thence for Bosnia, to serve there, as 'tis said, under the Prince of Hildburghausen, who has no more than 14,000 Men of Regular Troops; and of these he is obliged to employ a good Part in garnishing the Posts which he takes one where or another: That the Turks, with Bonnevall at the Head of them, are reinforcing themselves in Bosnia; and that when the Germans made their Approaches to Banialucka, the Governour was so impudent, that he would not let the Officer enter, who was sent with the Trumpeter to summon him to surrender; but upon the very first Signal he sounded with his Trumpet, he order'd a Cannon to be discharged, by which the Officer had a Horse kill'd under him, and the Trumpeter's Cockade was shot off of his Hat.

They add, that the Imperial Troops have taken Possession of Bucharest, the Capital of Wallachia, the Hospodar whereof is retired with his Wife to Turkey, and that the Hospodar of Moldavia is also gone thither; so that the Germans soon expect to be Masters of those Provinces.

L O N D O N.

By the Betty, Capt. Friend, from Oporto, comes Advice that Mr. Charles Peers, a promising young Gentleman, about 21 Years of Age (Grandson of the late Sir Charles Peers) who a few Months since went to settle there, washing in the River Douro was unfortunately drowned.

Last Night the Corpse of the Rev. Dr. King, Master of the Charter-house, after lying in State, at his House in Charter-house Square, was interred in the Chapel belonging to the Charter-house.

We hear that the Rev. Dr. Carleton of Colchester, will succeed the Rev. Dr. King as Archdeacon of Colchester.

Last Saturday their Majesties, the Duke of Cumberland and the Princesses, took the Diversion of hunting a Stag in Richmond New Park, which they kill'd after a Chase of about three Hours, and afterwards returned to Hampton Court to Dinner.

The same Morning Money was sent from the Pay Office in Broad-street, to pay two Months Wages in Six, due to the Torrington Man of War, and also to pay two Months Advance to her new entered Men.

Next Wednesday will be Recalled the Short Allowance Money due to his Majesty's Ship the Swallow, from the 22d of March 1736-7, to the 3d of May 1737.

Mr. Broden is appointed Accomptant to the Salt Duties, in the room of Mr. Sumpter, deceased.

Last Saturday a Match for a considerable Sum of Money was rowed for from the Old Swan to the Swan at Chelsea, between one Nichols a Waterman of Trigg Stairs, and one Faircloth of Paul's Wharf, which was won by Nichols, by a considerable Distance.

The Honourable the Commissioners of the Customs have lately appointed Mr. Robert Foster, one of the Inspectors of the Customs, to be Inspector General of the Customs throughout England, a Place of considerable Profit.

The Report of the Hector Man of War being put into Commission, and the Command thereof given to Capt. Redish, as mentioned in several Papers, is a Mistake; we being well assured that the said Ship is not as yet Commissioned by the Lords of the Admiralty.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, entertained several of the Foreign Ministers at Hampton Court, and will continue so to do once a Week, during their Majesties Stay there.

It having been represented to the King that Catherine the Wife of Robert Long, dwelling at Lime-house Corner in the County of Middlesex, and a Child of four Years of Age, were most barbarously murdered on the 16th of June last, in the House of the said Robert Long, by a Person or Persons unknown, who also robbed his House of Effects to a considerable Value: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so horrid a Crime, is pleas'd to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so as they or any of them may be apprehended, and convicted thereof. As a further Encouragement, the said Robert Long offers a Reward of 20 Guineas to any Person who shall make such Discovery.

Observed

Observing a Paragraph in the London Daily Post of Thursday last, which says, The Spaniards claim some Parts of America now possessed by the English: And that the Colony of Carolina being situated in 32 Degrees of Latitude, and 294 1-half of Longitude; and that that of Georgia being to the South of the same, it is indisputable that this last, as well as the first, is within the Territories of the King of Spain, according to the Treaty in 1670: And that the Demarcation between Carolina and Florida, was regulated by the 17th Article of the said Treaty to be 33 Degrees 50 Minutes North Latitude, and 339 Degrees and 20 Minutes Longitude.

We do not deny that a Spanish Minister may have laid in such a Claim; but we can affirm, That in the 7th Article of the Treaty of 1670 (under which he, on behalf of Spain, pretendeth to claim) there is no such Demarcation: And we therefore have inserted that Article at full Length, taken from the said Treaty printed by Authority in the Year 1685, intituled as follows;

A Treaty for the composing of Differences, restraining of Depredations, and establishing of Peace in America, between the Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, concluded at Madrid the 8-18th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1670.

Article VII. All Offences, Damages, Losses, Injuries, which the Nations and People of Great Britain and Spain have at any Time heretofore, upon what Cause or Pretence soever, suffered by each other in America, shall be expunged out of Remembrance, and buried in Oblivion, as if no such thing had ever passed.

Moreover, It is agreed, That the most Serene King of Great Britain, his Heirs and Successors, shall have, hold, keep and enjoy for ever, with plenary Right of Sovereignty, Dominion, Possession and Propriety, all those Lands, Regions, Islands, Colonies and Places whatsoever, being or situate in the West Indies, or in any Part of America, which the said King of Great Britain and his Subjects do at present hold and possess; so as that in regard thereof, or upon any Colour or Pretence whatsoever, nothing more may or ought to be urged, nor any Question or Controversy be ever moved concerning the same hereafter.

Admiralty Office, August 6, 1737.

HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders, for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars, which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows, as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for managing the said Charity, do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 13th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

WHEREAS Proposals and Printed Schemes have been delivered out, and Subscriptions taken in, for encouraging and filing some Illegal Sales or Lotteries; in order to caution Adventurers, and to suppress such Undertakings, and to be a Means to bring the Offenders to Justice, the Managers and Directors of the Present Lottery, have thought proper to insert the two following Clauses of an Act of the 8th Year of His late Majesty King George I. Chap. 2. Sect. 36 and 37.

And Whereas, Notwithstanding the Provision already made by several Acts of Parliament, for suppressing and preventing of Unlawful Lotteries, and Offices, and Places, under the Denomination of Sales, and taking or making, Buying or Selling Subscriptions, for the Sale of Chances, or Part of Chances, to arise on Tickets made out in Pursuance of any Act of Parliament for a Publick Lottery, many ill-disposed Persons, with a Design to evade such Laws, have of late presumed, and do daily presume, to erect and set up Offices or Places, under the Denomination of Sales of Houses, Lands, Plate, Jewels, Ships, Goods, and other Things; and also have presumed to make, print, and publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published, Proposals or Schemes, for advancing small Sums of Money by several Persons, amounting in the whole to large Sums, to be divided among them by the Chances of the Prizes in some Publick Lottery or Lotteries, established or allowed by Act of Parliament, and to deliver out Tickets to the Persons advancing such Sums, to entitle them to a Share of the Money so advanced, according to such Proposals, and Advertisements thereof are daily published in the common Printed News-Papers, and otherways, which Practices are highly prejudicial to the Publick, and to the Trade of this Kingdom, and tend to defraud His Majesty's Subjects, Be it further Enacted, By the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, who after the 21st Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1721. shall erect, set up, continue or keep, or shall cause or procure to be erected, set up continued, or kept, any Office or Place, under the Denomination of Sales of Houses, Lands, Advowsons, Presentations to Livings, Plate, Jewels, Ships, Goods, or other Things, for the Improvement of small Sums of Money; or shall sell, or expose to Sale, any Houses, Lands, Advowsons, Presentations to Livings, Plate, Jewels, Ships, Goods, or other Things, by Way of Lottery, or by Lots, Tickets, Numbers, or Figures; or shall make, print, advertise, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, advertised, or published, Proposals or Schemes, for advancing small Sums of Money by several Persons, amounting in the whole to large Sums, to be divided among them by the Chances of the Prizes in some Publick Lottery or Lotteries, established or allowed by Act of Parliament, or shall deliver out, or cause or procure to be delivered out, Tickets to the Persons advancing such Sums, to entitle them to a Share of the Money so advanced, according to such Proposals or Schemes; or shall make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published, any Proposal or Scheme of the like Kind or Nature, under any Denomination, Name, or Title whatsoever, and shall be thereof Convicted upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more creditable Witnesses or Witnesses, by two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, Division, or Liberty where such Offence shall be committed or the Offender shall be found (which Oath such Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered and required to administer) the Person so convicted, shall for every such Offence, over and above any former Penalties inflicted by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, made against any private or unlawful Lotteries, forfeit the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds; one Third Part thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; one other Third Part thereof to the Informer, and the remaining Third Part thereof to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, as aforesaid, and shall also for every such Offence, by such Justices be committed to the County Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of one whole Year, and from thence until the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds so forfeited, as aforesaid, shall be fully paid and satisfied: Provided nevertheless, that any Person who shall think himself or herself aggrieved by the Judgment or Determination of Two or more such Justices, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall have Liberty to appeal to the next Quarter Sessions to be held for the County, City, or Place, where such Judgment or Determination shall be made or given, and that the Judgment to be given by the Justices of the said next Quarter Sessions shall be final.

And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who after the Time aforesaid, shall be Adventurer or Adventurers in, or shall pay any Money or other Consideration, or any ways contribute unto or upon the Account of any such Sales, Lotteries, Proposals or Schemes aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence double the Sum paid or contributed, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor any more than one Imparlance shall be allowed, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

The SWANZEY WATERS

Having been found by Experience to cure FLUXES and HÆMORRAGES, both internal and external, Seminal and other Weaknesses in both Sexes, decay'd and lost Appetite, Indigestion, Nauseating, and Retchings, the Effects of Hard Drinking or Fast Living: And, as from their Styptic and sanative Quality, they instantly stop Bleedings, and heal all fresh Wounds apply'd in time, bidding fairer of any Medicine hitherto discovered, for the Cure of Consumptions and Ulcerations of the Lungs, if not too far advanced; and from a Natural Combination and exact Proportion of sulphurous, aluminous and vitriolic Particles (not to be attained to by Art) being a most effectual and expeditious Remedy in a Diabetes, a sovereign Restorative in broken Constitutions, bracing up and renewing the lost Tone of the Parts, increasing the elastic Power of the Nerves and Muscles, invigorating the Blood, and enlivening the Spirits, opening Obstructions, and being highly approved of in Palsies, Rheumatism, Dropsies (after Tapping or Purging) Hystrical and other Disorders; the Proprietor of these Waters acquaints the Publick, That they are now to be sold at Daniel's Coffee-house near the End of Chancery Lane in Fleet-Street, at the Rate of 8s. the Dozen in Bottles.

N. B. As great Numbers of Persons, who make Voyages to those Countries which are subject to Fluxes are carry'd off with that Distemper, the Proprietor of these Waters will speedily have a sufficient Quantity of them in London and most of the Sea Port Towns, in order to supply Merchants and Seafaring Persons therewith. Proper Directions for their Use will be given at the Place of Sale.

These Waters will keep well several Years, and the using some Part of a Bottle, and opening of it often, occasions no Decay in the Water, or Diminution of its Virtues.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-Street.

This Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood, also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Menies, bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptic from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr. Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Ours exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.

Sold, by Licence, at Garraway's Old Shop, Practical Scheme, at the Royal Exchange; Mr. R. Bradshaw's Warehouse behind the Royal Exchange; Mr. John Porter, Chymist, in Bartholomew Close; Mr. William Evans, Bookseller, in Brighthelm's Hammond, Jun. Bookeller, at York; Mr. Roe, Bookeller, in Derby; Mr. Raikes, Printer, in Gloucester; Mr. Dixon, Printer, in Northampton; Mr. Thomas Greenhill, Mercer, at Bath; Mr. Abree, Printer, at Canterbury; Mr. Howard, an Apothecary, at Kidderminster; Mrs. Trebridge, a Bookkeeper, in Exeter; Mr. Hallifax, an Apothecary, at Brackley; Mrs. Unett, a Bookseller, at Woolverhampton; and Mr. Bryan, a Printer, at Worcester.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men, By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS; Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolifick in a most wonderful Manner.

Hundreds of Ladies who were deemed incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either indolence or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rout, fortify, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Propriety to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cause it proceeds, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5s. the Bottle, with Directions.
